

PLANNING FROM THE HEART

INSPIRATIONAL STORIES, NEWS AND CHARITABLE GIVING STRATEGIES

HER LIFE BLESSINGS CREATE A FOREVER GIFT

Catholic community life was important to Patricia “Patty” Lucille Jones of Boise. To serve in and give to the Church brought her joy and fulfillment. She made sure that the communities closest to her heart, Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School, would not be neglected after her death.

“Mom was a feisty Irish lass—lovely, lively and quick,” said Kathleen Wetstein, oldest daughter of Everett and Patty Jones, at her mother’s funeral.

Patty was born into a devout Irish Catholic family in 1935, in Lincoln, Nebraska. She married Dr. Everett N. Jones Jr. in Denver in 1957. The couple moved to his hometown of Boise in 1963.

An avid supporter of Catholic education, Patty served on the Foundation Board for Bishop Kelly High School. She and Everett had five daughters. All of them attended Sacred Heart School and Bishop Kelly High School and were college graduates.

After 56 years of marriage, her husband died in 2013. A few years before her death on May 12 of this year, she struggled with primary progressive aphasia, a form of dementia. She died from complications of the disease.

In the legacy of her generosity while living, Patty made bequests to Sacred Heart Church and School.

“Mom and Dad reminded us often,” Kathleen said, “that we were blessed with time, talents and treasure, and that it was expected that we use these well to glorify God and benefit others.”

Like Patty, you can make a gift in your estate plan that expresses your values and supports the Church. To learn more, please contact Margaret Hampton at mhampton@rcdb.org or (208) 342-1311, Ext. 5139.

SUPPORT WHAT MATTERS MOST TO YOU

Now and in the Future

There are many reasons to make a charitable gift to the Catholic Church—and your passion for those we serve is likely at the top of that list. Friends like you make it possible to continue building up the Kingdom of God, in a variety of ways, today and for years to come.

No matter where you are in life, there are ways for you to support the Church's important work and Catholic mission that can also serve you well.

Give Tomorrow

Planned giving ensures the Idaho Catholic Church can further the mission for generations. When we know about your future gift, we can plan for that revenue and all the good it can do.

Future gifts include: gifts in your will or living trust; beneficiaries of your retirement plan, bank or brokerage account, or life insurance policy

Deferred gifts allow you to make a bigger impact than you initially thought possible, perhaps more than your current budget allows. Maintain control of your assets, with the flexibility to extend your support for those we serve beyond your lifetime.

Give Today

The Catholic Church has pressing needs to meet every day. When you give an outright gift, you make our current work possible.

Current gifts include: cash or check; appreciated assets, such as securities or real estate; grants from your donor advised fund; gifts from your IRA

With these gifts, you put your estate to good use now. Connect with causes and organizations you care about, and see the very real difference your generosity makes.
